Admission Information and Requirements

The ETBU School of Nursing enrolls a new nursing cohort at the beginning of each fall and spring semester. Classes are initiated based on current university guidelines for class size, available resources, and at the discretion of the university.

Completed applications for admission to the Spring 2021 Level 1 Cohort are due to the School of Nursing main office (Suite 403) on the 4th floor of Marshall Grand by Monday, January 31, 2022 at 5:00 p.m.

Applicants are considered for acceptance into the program once all admission requirements have been completed, with the exception of successful completion of outstanding pre-requisite coursework in which the applicant is enrolled prior to the start of the entering term.

Letters notifying applicants of their acceptance into the fall nursing cohort will be mailed at the close of the respective spring or fall semester prior to entry into the program. Once accepted, applicants must indicate, in writing, their acceptance by the date stated in their acceptance letter in order to secure their place. Letters to applicants who are not offered a seat in the upcoming program will also be mailed within this same time frame.

Admission requirements:

Criminal Background Check Consent and Compliance Agreement

The emphasis on patient safety in healthcare organizations is a high priority. The ETBU Teague School of Nursing is required to have documentation on file showing completion of criminal background checks on students prior to their entry into clinical agencies for the purposes of observing or providing patient care.
